CHIEF COUNSEL FOR HAUPTMANN FIRED BY WIFE

Reilly Dismissed Just as He Claimed Getting New Evidence

New York, April 4. — (AP) — Edward J. Reilly's dismissal as chief of counsel for Bruno Hauptmann was in the mails today. Mrs. Anna Hauptmann, wife of the man condemned for the Lindbergh baby's kidnapping, announced she had dispatched the letter of dismissal. She is campaigning in the middlewest for funds to wage Hauptmann's appeal from the death sentence. As the successor to Reilly, veteran of 2,000 metropolitan homicide cases, Mrs. Hauptmann designed L. Lloyd Fisher of Flemington, N. J., Reilly's associate in the vain effort to free Hauptmann. It was Reilly's bill for $25,000 which climaxed months of discord between counsel and defendant, Mrs. Hauptmann said. She called it "exorbitant" and premature.

Bill for 13 Weeks. "That bill is for 13 weeks," said Reilly, "and I think it is reasonable."

Hauptmann had leaned toward Fisher for some time, but his wife had insisted Reilly was all right, she said just before she left on her tour. The prisoner expressed pleasure when she changed her mind yesterday, she added.

They conferred in the death house before she mailed the ouster letter. Mrs. Hauptmann said the defense fund had reached from $12,000 to $15,000, and she had turned over $5,000 of this money to Reilly.

The lawyer asserted he had received only a mortgage which he sold for $2,900, giving $500 to Fisher.

Claims New Evidence. Reilly today received notice of his dismissal and said the action came "just when we were going to make application for new evidence."

Reilly said the new evidence would be the testimony of several persons willing to say that they had seen a strange automobile loitering in the vicinity of the Lindbergh estate near Hopewell, N. J., for four days before the kidnapping of the infant on March 1, 1932.

Four men, Reilly said, were in the car, and Hauptmann was not one of them. The attorney said the license number of the machine was taken and showed the automobile had been stolen.

Further evidence, Reilly said, would be based on the testimony of Amandus Hochmuth, state's witness who testified during the trial of Hauptmann at Flemington, N. J., that he had seen the defendant in the vicinity of the Lindbergh estate the morning of March 1, 1932.

Elgin's Centennial Observed Wednesday

Elgin, Ill., April 4. — (AP) — Thousands of Elgin citizens gathered yesterday to celebrate the centennial of the city's founding.

Descendants of the founders, Mezekah and James P. Gifford, took part in the celebration as a preliminary to a more extensive observance planned for June 16-22. Attired in 19th Century costumes, descendants of the Giffords and of James Kimball, another pioneer, rode in a covered wagon to the ceremonies in Memorial Park.

Walter Kimball, second white boy born in Elgin, was among the seven Civil War veterans who took part in the services. The Elgin high school glee club sang the old Scottish hymn, "Elgin," for which the city was named.

Negligence Charged Against Officers of San Diego by Coroner

San Diego, Calif. — A coroner's jury charged the police with contributory negligence in the death of Walter Puckel, formerly of Rockford, Ill., who died of a fractured skull and hemorrhage of the brain after living in a city jail cell nine hours without medical attention. Booked on a drunk charge, Puckel received his skull fracture before his arrest, the jury found.

500,000 NEW FARMS

Washington, April 4. — (AP) — The back-to-the-land movement that was born of depression has helped add an estimated 500,000 new farms to the nation's total.

These are tentative figures supplied by census bureau officials on the basis of preliminary farm census returns. At the time of the last general census in 1930, there were 6,300,000 farms.

RETRIBUTION?

Kansas City, April 4. — (AP) — The death Herbert Hurd, 77-year-old crossing watchman, allegedly sought for himself came today to his wife, Nellie, 64.

Mrs. Hurd, allegedly shot four times by her husband yesterday after what he claimed were "weeks of torture to make me reveal my hidden fortune and confess attentions to a neighbor woman," died without making a statement to police. City Detectives Fred Greene and John Costello asserted Hurd alleged his wife tortured him with fire, a dagger and wire bindings over a period of weeks. He denied he had a fortune or that he was intimate with another woman.

"I was going to kill myself with the ice-pick if she would let me get out to the kitchen," Green quoted Hurd as telling him, "but she kept torturing me there in bed so I grabbed a gun and shot her."

Greene and Costello said murder charges against Hurd, now in General Hospital because of serious wounds and burns on his body, would be filed late today.

FREIGHT WRECK AT OTTAWA, ILL. KILLS TWO MEN

Ottawa, Ill., April 4. — (AP) — The engineer and fireman of a Rock Island freight train were killed and three others injured early today when the truck of a west bound tank car broke, hurling the car into the path of another freight train bound east.

The dead were: Richard Wolf, 55, engineer, and William House, 50, fireman, both of Blue Island, Ill.

Those injured were: Joe Conlon, Blue Island, brakeman, condition serious; Fay Green, Blue Island, brakeman, minor injuries; Walter Keim, Ottawa police officer, acid burns from content of tank car. More than a dozen cars were derailed by the crash, a hundred yards of track torn up, and the locomotive of the east bound train hurled against the factory of the King Hamilton farm machinery plant.

Wolf's body was removed immediately, but House's body could not be extricated at once.

Authorities said House could not be removed until acetylene torches had cut away the wreckage that pinned his body in the wrecked locomotive.

Second Child Taken from Polo Home in Less than Fortnight

Esther Butterbaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Butterbaugh, who reside five miles northeast of Polo, passed away at the Katherine Shaw Bethel hospital here last evening, death being caused by complications following an attack of measles, such as took the life of her older sister, Leona, a week ago last Sunday.

Private funeral services will be held at the home of her parents at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Rev. Merle Hawbecker of the West Branch church officiating, and with burial at the West Branch cemetery. On Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock a memorial service for the public will be held at the West Branch church.

Esther was born near Polo Nov. 23, 1923, and is survived by her parents and two sisters, LaVonne and Ruth, to whom the deepest sympathies of the Polo community is extended.

Mendota Man Fined in Chicago for "Curing" Blind Ex-Serviceman

Chicago — Randall Barron, 27, of Kankakee, and Rupert McCarthy, 26, Mendota, were fined $600 each and sentenced to six months for taking $643 from Mrs. Lillian Wynne for "curing" her son, Robert, blind war veteran with colored water and aspirin. Police said McCarthy is wanted by Mendota authorities.

Well Known Ogle County Farmer is Found Dead in Hayloft, a Suicide

A verdict of suicide was returned at an inquest in Oregon last night into the death of Roy Cross, 49, prominent Ogle county farmer, whose body was found hanging from a hayloft rafters at his farm home, three miles southeast of Chana, yesterday afternoon. The inquest was conducted by Coroner Jesse Atkins of Forreston. Cross' body was discovered in a hayloft on his farm at 3:30 P. M. by Fred Arends, a neighbor. Arends

FOURTH PARLEY ON RELIEF ACT FUTILE EFFORT

Conferees Again Failed to Reach Agreement Labor Proviso

Washington, April 4. — (AP) — The fourth meeting of senate and house conferees on the $4,888,000,000 relief bill ended today with no agreement on the deadlocking "direct works" amendment.

Senator Glass (D-Va.), chairman of the senate managers, emerged from the conference, which lasted a little more than an hour, with the statement:

"There is no agreement yet. The conference adjourned subject to the call of the chairman. I don't know when there will be another conference."

The veteran Glass still pressed the compromise he offered last night to the house conferees. There were several versions of its terms.

President Judge

One was that the president would be authorized to determine what constitutes "direct labor" under the provision requiring that one-third of the money allocated to states from a $900,000,000 fund be spent for direct work, and that labor used in producing and transporting materials for a project could be counted as direct labor.

Glass and his associates have stood out for the 33 1-3 percent requirement in the belief no money should be spent for purchasing existing power or other plants. Secretary Ickes, supported by President Roosevelt, have contended the labor restriction would disqualify many state projects such as PWA has aided in the past.

House Conciliatory. House members on the conference committee appeared to be in a conciliatory mood. They declined to accept the compromise after a meeting last night, however, asserting they wanted to study it overnight and to receive assurances that it was satisfactory to the president.

Some observers asserted acceptance of the compromise would be a victory for Glass who backed the original one-third for labor amendment.

Glass had argued that his amendment would prevent PWA Administrator Ickes from making loans and grants to cities for the purchase of existing power plants. The proposed substitute, although relaxing the original requirement regarding direct labor, still would provide that a third of the loans and grants be spent for labor of one kind or another. This it was said in Capitol circles, would be a formidable barrier to the use of work relief funds for light plant purchases in which payments to labor were a small factor.

FULTON SLAYER MUST DIE APRIL 19: LOSES PLEA

Springfield, Ill., April 4. — (AP) — The Illinois Supreme Court today refused to review the murder conviction of Fred Blink, Whiteside county farmer under sentence to be electrocuted April 19 in Joliet penitentiary.

The high court, declining to accept Blink's appeal, refused to issue a writ of error and supersedeas and hold up the execution. Blink's only recourse now is to apply to the state pardon board for executive clemency.

Last September the 45-year-old farmer killed five of his neighbors with a shotgun as the outgrowth of a quarrel involving $40. He was sentenced to death for the murder of John Hamilton, one of the three men and two women killed.

CONSUMER PAYS FOR NRA CODES

Attorney Compares NRA With Fascist State in His Testimony

Washington, Apr. 4. — (AP) — Senate investigators were told today by Lowell Mason, former counsel for the Darrow review board, that NRA is the "first step" toward a Fascist state, comparable to the Italian "March on Rome" or the German "beer hall putsch."

Mason, a youthful appearing Chicago attorney, compared the NRA setup with the Fascist corporate state, saying they were modeled on the same lines.

Reviewing the findings of the review board headed by Clarence Darrow, Mason also predicted to the senate finance committee that if NRA were extended without restoration of the anti-trust laws "the sky will be the limit" on prices and "the consumer will be the victim."

"A resume of the findings of the Darrow board of investigation," he said, "shows that under the NRA the practice of monopoly by large industries is bold and aggressive. Small enterprises and minorities in industry have been cruelly oppressed."

"Unfair practices against small business men have not only been increased but have been legalized by the codes," Mason contended. "The men who wrote, administered and interpreted the codes were the tools of the big industries," and he said "The codes were drawn so as to permit fixing of prices for the advantage of large companies and to forbid new enterprises from entering the competitive field."

TWO DEAD, FIVE WOUNDED IN N. MEXICO FIGHT

Gallup, N. M., April 4. — (AP) — Sheriff M. R. Carmichael and an unemployed coal miner were shot to death and five persons, including one woman, were wounded today in a street riot precipitated by a shouting crowd of more than 300.

Disorder flamed when the crowd rushed sheriff's deputies removing prisoners from a hearing in a justice of the peace court growing out of an eviction case.

The jobless man slain was identified as Ignacio Velarde, 37, a World War veteran.

Deputy Sheriff B. W. Roberts said either Velarde or another unemployed miner, Solomon L. Esquebel, 37, shot Carmichael through the head and the deputy then opened fire and shot both Velarde and Esquebel.

Two other sheriff's deputies, Edison L. Wilson and Roy Bogges, were wounded in the fighting. Wilson suffered a bullet wound in the chest and Bogges was slained in the chest.

Fred Mulkins Died at Home Last Night

Fred A. Mulkins passed away at 10:30 last night at his home, 341 West Chamberlain street. He was born in Dixon Oct. 13, 1879 and had been in failing health for the past several months. Funeral services will be conducted from the family residence Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Lloyd W. Walter, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church officiating and interment will be in Riverview cemetery at Oregon. The obituary will be published later.

TO PRESS NRA CASE

Washington, Apr. 4. — (AP) — The justice department today announced an NRA case will be carried promptly to the supreme court in an effort to test fundamentals of the recovery law during the present term of the tribunal.

ODDITIES Introduces Bill to Pay Cash Relief as the House Adjourns

HONESTY REWARDED. Omaha, April 4. — (AP) — Among the honest men in this world is George Mantis, a hat cleaner. When he ripped the band off an old fedora out dropped a $100 bill. He returned it to the owner. Reward: $2.50.

SEEKS HUSBY HERE. Chicago, April 4. — (AP) — Even though Gertrude Michael, who chickened in the films, isn't looking for a husband, she says the midwest should be the place to look for one. The men in this section, she said, "are reliable, punctual and industrious."

THAT'S HIS STORY.

Chicago, April 4. — (AP) — The way Earl Mayfield told the story it was like this: His wife's temper was all right except when she got too many hearts in a game of hearts. "I threw a heart on her trick and she threw a plate on my head," he said in court during a divorce hearing against his wife, Mildred. He alleges cruelty.

MUCH EXCITEMENT.

Crane, Mo., April 4. — (AP) — Excitement ran high here when a prisoner from the city jail ran down the street in the middle of the night, shouting:

"A cop! A cop! Where's a cop?"

Investigation by City Marshal Bill Rickman disclosed that a robber had broken into the jail and robbed the prisoner of $17. He forgot to close the door when he left.

TEETH THEFT CLUE.

Chicago, April 3. — (AP) — A couple of teeth were picked up the other day after a motor car thief ran the car he had stolen into a telephone pole, but that's only half the story. The teeth came from the thief's mouth. If they fit the holes in Nicholas Succas' gums he will have some explaining to do, the police said. They began their teeth investigation after Nicholas appeared in court with two teeth missing, on a charge of attempting to rob a department store two months ago.

COEDS A MENACE.

Philadelphia, April 4. — (AP) — University of Pennsylvania students approve of coeds as "dates" but regard them as "an invading menace" when it comes to eating in the Houston hall dining rooms. The girls, complains the Pennsylvania student publication, are much too agile in beating men to the tables, and "take more time over their toast than a one-armed man eating shad."

The men want the coeds to eat in their own dining room—for women only—in Sargent hall. They refuse.

AAA TAKES STEP BACKWARD THIS TIME OVER MILK

Washington, April 4. — (AP) — The AAA today took another step backward in its effort to enforce milk marketing licenses when Secretary Wallace suspended the license for the Providence, R. I., sales area.

The action resulted from the decision of the Federal district court in Rhode Island on March 27 that the AAA could not regulate or control producers and distributors doing an intra-state business.

AAA officials explained that since the effect of the decision was to exclude all milk produced in Rhode Island, which is a large portion of the total sold in Providence, equalization of returns to all producers was impractical.

They explained further that the license was suspended, rather than cancelled, in order to make possible further study of the problem in conferences between the AAA, the Rhode Island state milk control board and Governor Theodore Green.

CONTEST DISMISSED

Springfield, Ill., April 4. — (AP) — The House of Representatives today dismissed the election contest filed by William H. Ennis, Chicago Republican, against the House delegation from the 31st senatorial district. The House followed the recommendation of its elections committee.

This was decided at a conference between Dr. Frank Jirka, state health director, and other state officials late yesterday.

The health department, alarmed at the increase in the number of dogs with rabies, announced that its appropriation for Pasteur treatments is almost exhausted. The state recently put a quarantine on dogs in Sangamon county. Unless local and county authorities elsewhere take immediate steps to keep dogs from running at large similar quarantines will be declared, Dr. Jirka said.

In Sangamon county all peace officers have been instructed to shoot on sight any dog allowed to run at large.

Other epidemic centers causing concern over rabies at present are: Bond, Cook, Franklin, Jackson, Madison, Morgan, Peoria, Perry, St. Clair, Saline, Sangamon, Wayne and Williamson counties.

PAT WAKENING

Chicago, April 4. — (AP) — One of the legs of Patricia Maguire, sleeping sickness victim of suburban Oak Park, has grown shorter than the other during her long slumber.

This was disclosed for the first time publicly last night after a report of her physician, Dr. Eugene P. Traut, was published in the Journal of the American Medical Association.

Her right leg, the doctor said, is now a half inch shorter than her left, and its circumference at the thigh is an inch less. The change in leg-lengths resulted despite the fact that regular massages have been given to keep her muscles in good shape during her three year slumber.

But despite all obstacles, Patricia, who became 30 years old last Monday, is waking up. The eyes of the "sleeping beauty" are wide and alert to see what is going on around her.

Patricia, who began to slumber on February 15, 1932 recently has been awake eight or ten hours a day, with eyes open and an alert expression, the doctor reported.

HUNDRED GRAND HEART BALM IS JURY'S VERDICT

Chicago, April 4. — (AP) — "Heart balm" of $100,000 was awarded by a Federal court jury today to Mrs. Helen Bedford-Jones of Evansville, Ind., in her suit over the affections of her former husband, H. Bedford-Jones, fiction writer. The jury ordered a payment of this amount by Mrs. Mary Bernardin Bedford-Jones, the writer's present wife.

Defense Attorney Earle Ewins announced immediately after the reading of the verdict that he would seek a new trial of the case, which has been heard before Federal Judge William H. Holly because the first and the second wives are citizens of different states.

Neither Mrs. Bernardin Bedford-Jones, the loser, nor Mrs. Helen Bedford-Jones, the winner, was in court to hear the verdict. It was returned sealed, the jury having spent only 2 hours and 32 minutes in considering the case.

The amount awarded to the first wife was exactly half of what she had asked. Her suit was for $200,000.

Dixon Pastor Hurt in Auto Accident in Indiana Sunday

Rev. L. E. Connor, pastor of the Church of God of this city, is in a hospital at Rochester, Ind., suffering from injuries sustained in an automobile accident near that city late last Sunday night, according to word received by Mrs. Connor and friends in Dixon. Mrs. Connor was called to Rochester the first of the week to be at her husband's bedside and the exact extent of his injuries has not been learned. A letter received from Mrs. Connor this morning indicated that her husband might have to remain in the hospital some time.

Rev. Connor was returning to Dixon from a preaching engagement in a small town near Rochester and blinded by the bright lights of a car going in the opposite direction, was reported to have crashed into a barricade on the road. His car was badly wrecked and he sustained serious injuries. Passing motorists took him to a hospital at Rochester.

ROBBERS LOST LOOT

Canton, Ill., April 4. — (AP) — Safe-crackers who looted the Fred Thompson insurance office last night lost their plunder, but escaped in a gunfight with William Essex, merchant officer. A suitcase containing money, bonds and other valuables was dropped as they fled when Essex opened fire.

General Quarantine of Dogs Throughout Illinois Threatened by Director

Springfield, Ill., April 4. — (AP) — Local communities and counties are to be given a final opportunity to cope with the "mad dog" situation before the state steps in and declares a general quarantine.

This was decided at a conference between Dr. Frank Jirka, state health director, and other state officials late yesterday.

The health department, alarmed at the increase in the number of dogs with rabies, announced that its appropriation for Pasteur treatments is almost exhausted. The state recently put a quarantine on dogs in Sangamon county. Unless local and county authorities elsewhere take immediate steps to keep dogs from running at large similar quarantines will be declared, Dr. Jirka said.

In Sangamon county all peace officers have been instructed to shoot on sight any dog allowed to run at large.

Other epidemic centers causing concern over rabies at present are: Bond, Cook, Franklin, Jackson, Madison, Morgan, Peoria, Perry, St. Clair, Saline, Sangamon, Wayne and Williamson counties.

FIRST DISORDER IN WALKOUT IS REPORTED TODAY

Cause of Strike Which Affects Several Municipalities Dark

BULLETIN

Sand Springs, Okla., April 4. — (AP) — Two men were stabbed and several others injured today as strikers and workers fought at the Commander textile mills here.

The battle was brief and ended before officers arrived but the opposing lines of men and women, armed with clubs, and other weapons, still were standing in the road in front of the mills.

Those stabbed were Harve Bradford and Ed Bruton, strikers. They were not injured seriously.

Will Knight, boss of the night shift, pleaded guilty in justice court to stabbing Bradford. He was released on $1,000 bond.

BULLETIN

Hillsboro, Ill., April 4. — (AP) — A high tension electric power line belonging to the Illinois Power and Light Corporation whose employees are striking, was wrecked here today, but the city continued to be supplied with power by another circuit.

Officers immediately began an investigation and declared arrests might result from several available clues.

The 33,000 volt line bringing power into Hillsboro from East St. Louis, snapped after a fire was built at the corner of a supporting post. Guy wires supporting the pole had been severed previously by officers said.

Power continued to be furnished Hillsboro consumers from another line running here from Greenville. The severed pole is in a wooded area 4 miles west of Hillsboro.

By the Associated Press. Coal and oil-burning stoves were pressed into household service in southern Illinois communities today as gas supplies were cut off by strikers. Electrical cooking devices were pressed into service, and some housewives fried eggs over electric irons or served them boiled with the aid of percolators.

The strike, called by the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, affected gas supplies in Centralia, DuQuoin, Belleville, Collinsville, Edwardsville and Wood River.

Peoria, Champaign, Urbana and Danville street cars were operating, though efforts to halt service had been feared. For two hours yesterday Peoria was without electrical transportation when substitution powerhouses men walked off the job and took up picket duties. They were replaced by superintendents and service was restored.

Parley at Standstill. In Champaign, negotiations between the Utility Operators Association and the electrical workers were at a standstill. The operators' association is made up of utility employees and assumes responsibility for operations of the Illinois Power & Light Corporation in the various cities.

Causes of the strike were undetermined, union spokesmen refusing an explanation and the power and light company maintaining it was without information. D. D. Hodges, treasurer of the operators association, said the difficulty lay in the refusal of his group to consent to insertion of a clause in electrical workers' contracts permitting them to go on a sympathy strike in case of labor troubles in other cities. Negotiations would not be resumed, he said, until electrical union members, also affiliated with the operators, had returned to their jobs.

Are Sympathy Strikes. Negotiations have been going on more than a month, he said, between his group and Michael J. Boyle of Chicago, international officer of the electrical union. The other strikes in the state, he said, are in sympathy with the Champaign situation.

The only interruption in Champaign service was that buses were tied up a short time yesterday. No cessation of light and gas service is anticipated.

Major Charles J. Millikin of Champaign offered to act as arbitrator in the strike today, and was accepted as such by the electrical workers' union. The operators' association had taken no action before noon.

In Danville, more than 100 workers were on strike, including power and gas plant operators, meter readers, track men and truck drivers. Service continued without interruption, though pickets surrounded the property of the power and light company.

NEWS of the CHURCHES

FIRST M. E. CHURCH

"Consider Christ Jesus" will be the general subject of six adaptation messages by Dr. Gilbert Stansell of the Dixon Methodist church at 7:30 in the evening, as follows:

April 7—"The Son of God"—Hebrews 1:1-2.

April 8—"God Illumined"—II Corinthians 4:4.

April 9—"Representing God and Man"—Hebrews 2:17-18.

April 10—"Mediator and Minister"—Hebrews 9:14; 10:22.

April 11—"The Faith of a Christian"—Hebrews 12:2.

April 12—"The Good Shepherd"—John 10:11.

The music for the week will be in the hands of the Men's chorus, aided by the organ and piano, and these men invite all men who will attempt to sing the hymns to join them. Everyone is most cordially invited to attend these services. They should be splendid preparation for the opportunities of Holy Week.

BRETHREN CHURCH

The Brethren church of this city will launch a revival campaign beginning April 7 and will continue until Easter. The church is also putting on a loyalty endeavor for increased attendance during the months of April, May and June and these united efforts will no doubt result in a great spiritual awakening. It is believed that the healthy growth of all departments of the church with the cooperation of all Sunday school classes will give much power to the campaign.

The various departments of the church are actively engaged in an effort to make this meeting a success in reaching souls for Jesus Christ. Sunday will be a great day in special services both morning and evening. In the Sunday evening service there will be selections in music and short talks which will be a booster for the revival.

The following ministers will speak next week: Monday night, D. D. Fundenberg field secretary of the Brethren churches of Northern Illinois, and pastor of the First Brethren church of Rockford; Tuesday night, A. C. Good, pastor of the Minonite Church north of Sterling; Wednesday night, Ezra Flory, pastor of the First Brethren church of Sterling; Thursday night, G. L. McClanathan, pastor of the East Jordan United Brethren church northeast of Sterling; Friday night, Paul Studebaker, pastor of the First Brethren church of Franklin Grove. These pastors will bring groups from their churches who will give special selections in music which will add much to the spirit of the services. This will be a meeting that the community will be interested in. A cordial invitation will be extended to everyone to attend.

FALL BREAKS LEG

Miss Florence Netiz, an employee in the alteration department at Eichler Bros. department store, had the misfortune to slip and injure her leg on the porch at her home. The fall fractured a bone and necessitated putting the limb in a cast, which will keep Miss Netiz from work for three or four weeks.

CORRECTED ERROR

Because of a slight and probably inconsequential error on the part of Town Clerk Walter Fallstrom, two sets of ballots were printed for the annual township election Tuesday, which involved an expense amounting to $15. In preparing the copy for the ballot several days ago, the Town Clerk neglected to copy the full names of four of the candidates as they had appeared on their petitions. As a safeguard against the possibility of giving cause for calling another election in the event that the original ballots, which had been printed, might be classed as illegal, Town Clerk Fallstrom corrected the error and ordered another supply of 10,300 ballots which were printed and used in Tuesday's regular township election. Mr. Fallstrom stated today that the expense involved amounting to $15, the price paid for the corrected ballots.

NEW SPIRIT FOR REPUBLICANS IN MIDWEST IS SEENLeaders Move for a Rebirth of Party in Its Birthplace Sector

Chicago, April 4—(AP)—The great middlewest, birthplace of the Republican party hummed with political activity today as leaders sought to effect the rebirth of the G. O. P. in its vast expanses.

Aiming to consolidate their forces "cattered by the crushing 1932 defeat and to infuse new blood in an attempt to restore the party to its former supremacy, party members were working persistently to perfect organizations for next year's campaign.

Particularly active were the Young Republicans and GOP women. Regular meetings of county and state central committees also were being held.

Simultaneously party chieftains and more than 1,000 delegates from a dozen great plains states planned to meet in Kansas City in May to crystallize views on the party reorganization.

Activities in the various states included:

Missouri—Grover Dalton of Poplar Bluff, state committee chairman, is organizing Young Republican clubs throughout the state.

Young Men's Republican Club, of Jackson county and Albert Reeves, Jr. chairman, said party leaders' speeches indicated a turning point had been reached and the "elephant is holding up his trunk once again."

Wisconsin—Elected one representative to state assembly Tuesday after active campaigning. Republican senators meet once a week at Madison to caucus on legislative matters. The state party headquarters is keeping its local organizations intact and sends out an occasional letter to precinct workers.

Iowa—Young Republican state central committee in a recent session at Des Moines drafted a program to submit to the state Republican Central Committee and appointed committees to draw up a platform and resolutions. The state Republican Central Committee, meeting the same day, elected a first district committeeman and laid plans for a meeting with the new state advisory council of 54 members.

Illinois—Chicago Republicans, losing in Tuesday's smashing Democratic victory, have called a meeting for Monday to plan reorganization. The downstate G. O. P. finds a bright spot in Peoria, where a Republican former mayor defeated the Democratic incumbent on a relief administration waste issue despite the latter's help by state and national leaders. Young Republicans are active throughout the state.

WAIT A BIT!

(By Joseph Fort Newton.)

IN JAPAN, it is reported, so many young people are taking their own lives that the whole nation is alarmed about it. To off-set this strange fanaticism, they are forming "Wait A Bit" clubs to check it.

Of course, since the days of old Samurais, suicide has been held in high repute in Japan. If life became untoward, or dishonorable, it was thought courageous to leave it through the ever open door.

But today self-destruction has become a kind of wild, mad fanaticism, and youth flings life away. The crater of a volcano has become an altar of sacrifice to the ghastly god of death, and must be guarded.

Among us, too, life is cheap, and many desperate letters reach me, showing what dark thoughts people are thinking. "What keeps me alive is the curiosity to see how futile life is," writes a young man. There follows the story of how he was saved by waiting a little bit.

"Two fellows came to me who had carefully planned a hold up. They wanted me in on it. We had no money, no work, no hope. If we are killed," they argued, "it will be fine. If we are jailed, it will be a place to eat and sleep. We have nothing to lose. So why not?"

"One may say they were weaklings. They were. But that is how they looked at it. What saved me was the thought of those who would be hurt, those who love and believe in me—I did not do it."

So he waited a bit, long enough to think of others: "Before I came to that, I would end it all myself." Happily, he did neither, and is now out of the dark and on his way to an honorable career.

All of us have mad moods and wild impulses, especially when the things go ill with us or with those we love. But if we stop, wait, think, we must know that every lane has a turning and things will change.

To be impatient and to rash deed may spoil everything, even life itself. If you are at the breaking point, do not let go.

Wait a bit. Stick to it. It may be a bit, but it is good gumption. So, why fling life away when it is all we have? Why spoil it?

Friday Tag Day Volunteers of America

Contributing to the Volunteers of America tomorrow by the purchase of a red heart tag means helping some of the neediest children in the state not otherwise provided for.

President Roosevelt wrote General and Mrs. Booth recently: "As a member of your National Advisory Board, and as an individual, I rejoice with you in the accomplishments of the work done by the Volunteers of America during last year."

Those who have been invited to cooperate are asked to meet Miss Lally in the council chamber at City Hall in the morning soon after nine o'clock. The committee sponsoring Mrs. Booth's work hopes every citizen will have "two hearts" on Saturday their own and one for the unfortunates in care of the organization.

After the business meeting conducted by the new officers, and the program, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, followed by a social hour.

Kitchen Scientists Tell How to Keep Cut Bananas from Discoloring

Those household Edisons, those scientists of the kitchen have been at it again! Fresh from the testing kitchens, and hot from the notebooks of the best cooks, comes the news of how to keep bananas from discoloring, once they've been cut or sliced. It's easy—as easy as peeling a banana itself!

All you have to do is use fruit juice—sprinkle it on, dip the bananas in, or hold them in it a while. Use grapefruit juice, canned or fresh; use canned pineapple juice; orange juice; or lemon juice. The kind you will use depends largely on what you plan to combine with the bananas. Lemon juice has been used for the purpose for some time, but the other juices are new.

Always effective as a garnish or decoration, always delicious in salads and fruit cups, the tendency of the mellow banana to lose its golden gleam once it has been sliced, has been a bit of a nuisance to homemakers. Now there isn't the slightest chance of the blond banana turning to a brunette; just apply any of the above named fruit juices, sprinkling them generously on the banana. Or dip in the banana slices first.

Good News For Leftovers

Not content with preventing discoloration the inventors have gone a step farther and discovered that they (and you, too) can restore the color and firmness of cut bananas which have already darkened somewhat or become a little sticky from being allowed to stand. For this magic process you may use either canned or fresh grapefruit juice, or canned pineapple juice. Immerse the fruit in the juices until they have recovered!

This little trick is a most important factor in using up leftovers, for it means that no leftover bananas need ever be thrown away. Simply "restore" their complexions and utilize them in any of the many ways bananas are so delicious.

One more tip: always use a sharp knife for slicing or cutting bananas. Be sure to select the fully ripe bananas (the all-yellow ones with brown flecks) for serving as a sweet fruit, with cereal, in fruit cups, salads, pies, cakes, puddings, and other desserts. And now, try these:

Banana Tea Cake

1-4 cup butter

1-4 cup sugar

1 egg

4 teaspoons, baking powder

2 cups flour

1-2 teaspoon salt

1 cup milk

1 1-2 thinly sliced bananas.

1-2 cup sugar

2 teaspoons cinnamon

Cream the butter and add the sugar and well beaten egg. Sift the baking powder with the flour and salt. Add to the first mixture, alternating with the milk, then fold in bananas. Pour mixture into two greased pie pans, sprinkle with mixed sugar and cinnamon, and bake 30 minutes in moderately hot oven, 400 degrees F.

Banana-Caramel Custard

1-2 cup sugar

2 cups scalded milk

2 tablespoons flour

2 egg yolks

1-2 teaspoon vanilla

3 to 4 sliced bananas

12 to 20 marshmallows

Put sugar in frying pan, and stir constantly over a low fire until melted. Add this (caramel) to scalded milk, stir until dissolved, then add to flour mixed with beaten egg yolks, and place in double boiler. Cook about ten minutes, stirring constantly until mixture thickens. Add vanilla and pour over sliced bananas in baking dish. Cover with whipped cream, marshmallows or meringue, and brown in moderate oven, 375 degrees F. For Book Review by Mr. Frazer Before Literature Dept.

The sixth and last book review, sponsored by the Literature Department of the Dixon Woman's Club, was held Wednesday, April 3rd, at the Dixon high school.

B. J. Frazer, of the high school faculty, reviewed the "much argued book," "Heaven Is My Destination," by Thornton Wilder, the author of many successful books, among which his "Bridge of San Luis Rey" won the Pulitzer prize.

Mr. Frazer opened with a brief review of the prize winning book, comparing it with this newest publication, finding some similarity between the two.

The story is the life of one George Brush, born on a farm, who attains a college education, a guileless, perpetual juvenile, whose intellect never has been awakened.

In early life he attends an evangelistic meeting, from which he gains his ideals; joins the church and thereafter his devotion to these same ideals become an obsession with him, much to the disgust of those with whom he comes in contact, in his everyday life.

This book, portraying the humble philosophies and everyday happenings in the life of Brush, exemplifies the hypocrisy of our modern civilization in which man does as he pleases, making the life of a true Christian seem out of place or impractical.

The public has shown great interest in the book reviews, and it is hoped that we may again have them next year.

Miss Burnham Entertains Chapter AC. P. E. O.

Chapter AC, Ill., P. E. O., met Monday evening at the home of Miss Edna Burnham. The paper of the evening was read by Mrs. H. A. Lazier, her subject being, "The Trend of the Cinema." Among the many interesting facts presented by Mrs. Lazier, the tendency of the late movie toward the historical and educational picture, was emphasized.

Miss Josephine Nichols assisted the hostess in entertaining the members during the social hour, which followed the business session and the program. The guests were treated to an old fashioned "sugar-off" and with the maple candy, was served a delicious fruit drink.

Schick-Stevens Wedding Wednesday

A wedding of much interest to Dixon friends took place yesterday afternoon in Morrison at the parsonage to the Bethesda Lutheran church, when Mrs. Anna Schick, and Elmer Stevens, son of Frank Stevens, both of Dixon, were united in marriage. The pastor of the church officiated at the ceremony.

Mr. Stevens and Mrs. Schick were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pope, brother-in-law and sister of the bride. Both the ladies were attractively attired in navy blue. After the ceremony the bridal party returned to Dixon where they enjoyed a two-course wedding dinner last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pope. A bouquet of gay spring flowers decorated the table.

Many friends will unite in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Stevens much happiness, as both are popular and have many friends. They will make their home with the bridegroom's father, Frank Stevens, 615 Willet avenue.

Child Who's Bad Actor May Be Only Seeking Spotlight

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

A mother recently asked me about her boy whose conduct has been pretty bad. "I whip him," she said, "and so does his father. We used to use our hands, and then we got a switch. His father used a strap last time. If this keeps on we will have to take a fence-paling to him. He only gets worse. He thinks up new things to annoy us every day."

Not knowing her boy or the nature of their homelife, it was not easy to advise—so many things enter into the making of a "bad" boy.

After further talk about behavior and motives, I began to see a light.

"Did it ever strike you," suggested the oracle, "that Johnny thinks you and his father are more interested in his conduct than you are in him?"

"They are the same, aren't they?" she asked.

Children Want Attention

"No, not in one sense they are—n't. There seems to be a sort of fence between you two parents and your boy. You are on one side, he on the other. Maybe he feels it—feels like a squirrel in a cage, or a bug under a microscope.

"Children are strange. They demand attention, and it is well known that when they feel others are not greatly interested in their affairs they make a bid for the lacking attention through other means. They do awful things sometimes to attract attention even though it be a scolding or punishment. They count it a day lost when they are not the center of the limelight even though the audience throws things."

"But we do love him. He knows we do everything for him. He isn't grateful but he knows it," his mother protested. The oracle continued:

"We will have to discount the gratitude, I am afraid. As a rule children are not grateful in the sense we know it. I know you love Johnny, but when I speak of interest in himself, I don't mean that, I mean interest in his interests."

"You might try an experiment. Stop all criticism for a while and try to overlook temporarily most of his disobedience and misbehavior. In the meantime substitute a new feature in the household. What does he like to do best?"

"Oh, he plays ball, and he likes books and he is crazy about ropes and lassos. He saves pictures sometimes."

Help Him at Play

"There you are. If his father would play ball with him sometimes, that would be a link in the new bond. Or show him how to tie new knots in the rope. If you could read to him a bit, or get him started on a real scrap-album of some sort, and help him with it. Show you are as anxious as he is in having it done right.

"It might begin a new family relationship. He might lose that spirit of reprisal and trying to upset you when he finds you are both such real people. And that he counts as well as his conduct."

"I don't predict any miracle over night, but something for the better might happen. Confidence between child and parent is good bed-rock to build on."

She seemed real anxious to go home and try it. I hope it works.

Chicago Flower Show Apr. 6th-14th

The Chicago Flower Show will take place April 6th to April 14th, and a record breaking attendance is anticipated. Do not wait until the fifty cent tickets are gone. A few are available at that price at the Evening Telegraph office. Later the price will be 75 cents.

Mrs. O. W. Dynes of Hinsdale, former president of the Garden Club of Illinois, is general chairman of the executive committee in charge of plans for the state garden club's ninth annual flower show which opens Friday on the Navy Pier, Chicago. Mrs. Dynes has friends in Dixon having visited often at Hazelwood, the summer home of the Charles Walgreens.

DENY PROFITS OF WAR, AND ASSURE PEACE!

An honest-to-goodness bill to take the profits out of war might turn out to be an excellent means of keeping the nation out of war altogether.

Take a look at the plan now being considered by the Senate munitions committee. This plan, submitted by John T. Flynn, New York financial writer, is reported to bear a certain amount of White House approval; and whether it does or not, it at least suggests a new way of keeping the country at peace.

This bill would take the profits out of war with a vengeance. Under its provisions, the government would take 50 per cent of the first 6 per cent profits of corporations, and 100 per cent of all over that in excess profits.

It would limit all individual incomes to $10,000, taking everything over that for Uncle Sam. It would slap income taxes on everyone earning more than $1000 a year, and the rates would be stiff.

Furthermore, it would draft general officers of all corporations into the military forces, and in case of need these gentlemen could be put under the same sort of control and pay scales that apply to army officers. It would close all commodity exchanges, forbid speculation in commodities, license industries and, where necessary, fix prices, and commandeer for the government all essential industries and services.

The whole business is drastic enough to take your breath away. But that it would do what it sets out to do—remove the profits from war—there is not the shadow of a doubt.

Declaration of war would mean the beginning of a dreary and irksome interval for business and industry, under this scheme; furthermore, the government should be able to pay all war expenses out of income, and the stupendous bond issues of past wars would be unknown.

But beyond all that, it is highly probable that such a law would be a powerful force to make the nation keep the peace.

One of the chief dangers nowadays is the fact that war does at least provide a great, if temporary, spurt of prosperity. Enormous profits are to be made.

That fact sticks in the back of everyone's head. It helps make us ready to accept the idea of war; for we can never forget that however trying the war period may be, it will at least be a time of high earnings.

We'd get a different attitude if this Flynn plan were law. The advent of war would mean fewer profits, not greater ones. No one would have any financial incentive for welcoming war.

Passing such a bill might prove an excellent means of keeping the nation at peace.

END OF A LONG DISPUTE

Sale by the Soviet government of the historic Chinese Eastern Railway to the government of Manchukuo removes one of the most potent sources of international friction in the Far East. When the Soviet ambassador accepted a check for 23,000,000 yen (slightly more than $6,000,000) for Russia's interest in the road, he brought to an end a dangerous quarrel 40 years old.

Construction of this railway marked the beginning of Russia's great drive to the Pacific. It helped to bring on the great Russian-Japanese war of 30 years ago; in recent years disputes over its ownership kept Russian-Japanese antagonism alive.

There was always the danger that one of these disputes might boil over into a new war.

The sale probably marks the end of Russia's efforts to dominate the Manchurian plain. The number of reasons for trouble in that harassed region has been reduced by one.

UNITED FIGHT ON DOPE

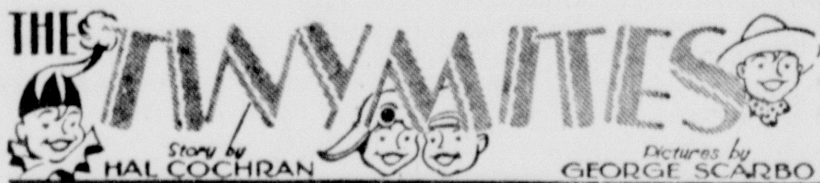

Every state legislature could profitably give heed to President Roosevelt's appeal for a system of uniform state laws to abolish the illegal traffic in narcotic drugs.

As the president points out, the federal government alone cannot wholly check this traffic. It must have full co-operation from local law enforcement units. But the great diversity of existing state laws on narcotic drugs makes such co-operation very hard to obtain.

No part of the current campaign against crime is more important than the drive against the drug evil. Passage of uniform state legislation along the lines suggested by the federal authorities will help us to attack the crime problem in a most vital zone.

De only reason dat brought on de depression was dat ebrybody was jes tired. Ef'n ebrybody could jes get some good rest dey would fine dey ain't much wrong.—Stepin Fetchit, movie actor famed for his laziness.

It is cowardly and unmanly and un-American for one to blame the government for his own lack of courage and enterprise.—J. P. Kennedy, chairman of Securities and Exchange commission.

The swinging was a lot of fun.

The giant took a real short run and pushed the Tines way up high.

It took their breath away.

Wee Scouty shouted, "Higher, please. Don't bother about poor

Duncy. He's a little bit afraid, but in the swing I'm sure he'll stay."

Then Duncy cried, "You bet I will. I must admit, this is a thrill, but I am getting used to it. Right now I think it's fun."

"Oh, goodness me, just see us go."

I kicked a high branch with my toe. If we sail up much higher, we'll be crashing through the sun."

Soon the old giant said, "Hey, tots, with my help you've had lots and lots of swinging back and forth. Now I am going to rest a bit."

"You all can swing until you're through. Just pump. It is not hard to do. You'll find me under yonder tree. That's where I'm going to sit."

On went the swinging, for a time.

Then Duncy said, "I guess I'll climb up to my feet and pump that way. It's easier, I guess."

"Oh, no you won't," snapped

Goldy. "You think of such risky things to do. Supposing you should slip and fall. Then you'd be in a mess."

The giant, in the meantime, flopped

beneath a tree and promptly dropped asleep. Then from behind some trees a band of monkeys came.

They eyed the big man for a while, and then they actually seemed to smile. Said one, "Let's tie him to the tree. Oh, this will be a shame."

All the monkeys liked the plan, and very shortly they all ran around and gathered long, strong vines. One monkey said, "Don't peep!"

"Just tie his hands and feet real tight. Then everything will be all right. We'll have to finish with the job while he still is asleep."

(The Tines find the giant all tied up in the next story.)

ROCHELLE NEWS

By Arthur T. Guest.

Rochelle.—A benefit dance will be given in King's Community hall, Monday evening, April 8th at 8 o'clock P. M., the proceeds to go to Harold Smith, a member of Rochelle Post No. 403, American Legion, who is in the Lincoln Memorial hospital convalescing from a very serious injury.

While sawing wood with a power saw last Thursday the blade broke and severed Comrade Smith's arm near the shoulder.

Rochelle Post No. 403, American Legion, has 400 tickets for sale at 25 cents each. Al Lind's orchestra, of Rochelle, will furnish the music and pie, cake and coffee may be purchased at the hall.

Mr. Smith has been active in the White Rock Grange, saw active service during the World War and was to have entered the employ of the midwest division of the California Packing Corporation of Rochelle in the farm department.

The next regular meeting of Rochelle Post No. 403, American Legion will be held in the club rooms Monday evening, April 8th. Following the meeting a party will be formed to attend the benefit dancing party for Harold Smith.

Rochelle Post No. 403, American Legion, is continuing their drive for membership and new and renewal memberships will be especially appreciated at this time. All memberships received between now and Sunday will be sent to Department Headquarters at Bloomington, Illinois, through courtesy of Blackhawk Vulture No. 408 d'Illinois, La Societe des 40 Hommes at 8 chevaux, who are joining the box car pilgrimage to Bloomington. The letter from Geo. S. Vesburgh, Chef de Gare, Captain Route No. 3, of the 40 and 8 addressed to the Commander of American Legion, Rochelle, Illinois, under date of April 1st, reads:

"We have signified our intention of participating in the pilgrimage to Bloomington next Sunday, April 7th, and will operate our locomotive on the route designated by Department Headquarters which schedule, I presume, you have received."

"Inasmuch as we are unable to make the time contemplated on the schedule with our locomotive we will leave Rockford 7:00 A. M. instead of 9:00 A. M. and operate as nearly as possible as follows:

Rochelle 7:50 A. M.; Compton 8:25; Mendota 8:55; Peru 9:30; LaSalle 9:45; Oglesby 10:00; Tonica 10:15; Lostant 10:35; Wenona 10:50; Rutland 11:10; Minonk 11:35; El Paso 12:10.

"It will assist us greatly if you could have a representative at the highway with the membership cards."

"Thanking you for your cooperation and hoping to see you Sunday, I am."

Hinkey Marietti and His Royal Commanders appearing under the sponsorship of Universal Orchestra Service, Champaign, Illinois, will be the next feature attraction of Rochelle Post No. 403, American Legion, for Saturday night, April 6th.

This dance given for the benefit of the drum and bugle corps will ring down the curtain on the Legion Queen contest. The contest voting closes April 6, 1935, and the presentation of the prizes and crowning ceremony will be announced later.

Hinkey Marietti has one of the finest dance bands appearing before the public today and will present one of the finest programs ever heard in Rochelle. The price of admis-

A princess who is twins will grace the throne of Memphis' great annual cotton carnival and that's a fact, not a joke. The throngs attending the fete, May 6-11, will see both Jean Boyer, left, and June Boyer, right, wearing the crown, but they'll never know which is which, as the twins' own friends can't tell them apart. sion will be: men 40 cents, ladies 35 cents, check room free.

At the annual town meeting of Flagg township held in the city hall at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, $12,000 was appropriated, $9,000 for relief and $3,000 for town fund. C. A. Anderson acted as moderator, R. L. Heydacker as clerk and the proposed levies were presented by Supervisor A. L. Fogle.

The Mary Monroe Service Guild met with Mrs. A. T. Guest, Monday night, with Mesdames C. H. Schaller and A. E. Kingma as assistant hostesses.

W. A. Hornsby received the final plans from his architects last week on an addition to his store. Work will be started in the very near future.

According to the plans, the store will be extended to the alley in the rear, which will nearly double the present floor space. A basement stock room will be built under the addition to more easily handle the huge stock of merchandise carried.

The latest fixtures and improvements will be installed in the store and many new departments will be added to the already extensive line of goods.

W. A. Hornsby, who is associated with his brother, A. F. Hornsby, of Morris, Illinois, has been in business in Rochelle for more than twenty years and the firm now has a chain of several stores in the state of Illinois.

Tuesday night, April 2nd, Horicon Lodge, held a banquet at the Masonic Temple in honor of its members who have belonged to this order for 25 years or more. Dinner was served at 6:30. Work in the third degree was exemplified, and as far as possible, the honored members were placed in the chairs.

Coach Lovery has issued a call for spring football practice at high school. A field day for all sports will also be held in a month.

The standing as of March 30, 1935, in the American Legion Queen contest is as follows:

Anna Pleitner—549.
Lucile Arends—302.
Anna Freed—248.
Charlotte Eienfang—165.
Roselyn Hill—139.
Pearl Tesmer—89.
Ruth Larson—31.
Lillian Fowler—16.
Anna Detman—14.
Winongene Knapp—9.
Helen Henry—4.
The contest closes for voting April 6, 1935.

Young Desperado is Short of New Ideas

Oklahoma City, April 4.—(AP)—Ted Cole, youthful desperado who escaped from McAlester penitentiary a year ago in a laundry bag and who sought freedom Monday as a passenger in garbage box, apparently has run out of new ideas.

Charlie Nashert and Ed Sommers, jailers, investigating a buzzing sound, found Cole sawing at the bars of his county jail cell last night with a 4-inch blade.

Cole, once sentenced to death for a Tulsa armed robbery, was captured recently after a chase across a Dallas, Tex., hotel roof. He faces a "Lindbergh law" charge of kidnapping J. A. Rutherford, Cushing, and forcing him to drive to Springfield, Ill.

After you have that auto accident do you not wish you had one of the Dixon Telegraph's Accident $10,000 Accident Insurance Policy? It costs but $1.40 for a year's protection.

Compton — Miss Ruth Coffman of Polo, Marilyn Ross of Chicago, Genevieve Greenwood of Geneseo, Margaret DeWolf of Reinbeck, Ia., Dorothy Rogers, head of the Department of Women's Physical Education at Mt. Vernon College and Dorothy Gilmore, of Compton, a student at Mt. Vernon College, enjoyed Wednesday evening at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gilmore. The party was enroute to Chicago where they served as delegates to the Midwest Conference of Women's Athletic Association.

The Twin Township Community Club held an interesting meeting in the Compton high school gymnasium Tuesday evening. About eighty members were present to enjoy the interesting program that was presented. George E. Mercer, instructor of Agriculture of Mendota high school spoke on "Communism." Musical numbers were given by Clement Buchanan, Eldo Johnson and Erwin Mittan. Mrs. Alvin Beemer entertained with a reading. Mr. and Mrs. Kugler, their father and mother of Harmon led the recreational period with numerous games. Lunch was enjoyed later in the evening.

Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Pool were guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. Carnahan of Paw Paw on Sunday, the occasion being the seventh birthday of the latter's son, Kenneth.

Mrs. Charles Walter visited friends in Compton Saturday. Mrs. Walter is much improved following a recent illness.

Dr. C. G. Pool purchased the Newcomb building located at corner of Fourth and Ottawa street in Dixon and will start work immediately remodeling it for an apartment building.

The Lee County Federation of Women's Clubs will hold an all day meeting at Ashton Thursday, April 11. This meeting is open to all club members.

M. E. Ladies Aid will hold their April meeting Wednesday April 10 in the church parlors.

After two evenings of play of the O. E. S. card tournament those holding high scores in the respective games were: bridge, Heler Beemer and Edna Irwin; five hundred, John Archer and Elizabeth Banks; pinochle, Edward Holdren and Marie Miller.

At the third evening of play held in the Masonic Hall, Monday evening the winners for the evening were: bridge, Chester Carnahan and Jim Knetsch; five hundred, Harrison Beemer and Elizabeth Banks; pinochle, Jake Martin and Floyd Carnahan.

The last night of the tournament will be held Friday evening of this week, April 5. Prizes for that evening will be awarded as well as the Grand Prize.

Dr. C. G. Pool attended the meeting of the Bureau County Medical Association held in Princeton Tuesday evening.

Hospital Notes

Eleanor May Stein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stein was taken to the home of her parents, near Meridian, last Monday.

George Earl Montavon who is suffering from infection in both hands, received treatment several days last week.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pfeiffer of Paw Paw, last Thursday.

Wallace Davis, convalescent from an attack of the measles, was found unconscious in the yard at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Davis Tuesday noon. He remained unconscious until Saturday morning when he partially regained consciousness. At present he is improving nicely. Miss Marian July is caring for him at his home.

The two youngest children of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Anjes have been seriously ill following the measles.

Raymond Gehant of West Brooklyn who was seriously ill following the measles, is improving.

Maxine Eggers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eggers is seriously ill with the measles.

Lester Kaufman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kaufman, is recovering rapidly from the measles.

Roy Carnahan had a small cyst removed from his eye Wednesday.

An entertainment consisting of several one act plays and musical numbers by the Compton high school students is being planned for the near future. The plays will be under the direction of R. Trobaugh the English instructor at the high school and the musical numbers will be supervised by Orla S. Nangle, teacher of music. Further details will be given at a later date.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie M. Corwin have rented the Ralph Carnahan property and will take up their residence there in the near future.

Roy Cook has been appointed thistle commissioner of Brooklyn township and will take up his duties within the next few days.

Mrs. Boyd Holdren returned to her home in Aurora Sunday after a week's visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Archer.

Approximately two hundred people visited the Compton gym Saturday to view the second annual Hobby Show display there. The affair was managed by D. C. Thompson of the local high school and was conducted primarily for the benefit of the school children, although many adult exhibits were welcomed and displayed, adding

"THE MEETING WILL NOW COME TO ORDER"

"Now, ladies," Cecile, right, seems to be telling her assembled sisters, "the business we have before us today is this matter of teething . . ." And the gravity of the 9½-month-old Dionne quintuplets is worthy of the occasion as they make up their own "family circle" in the little white "low-chairs" of the nursery. Left to right, Emme, Marie, Yvonne, Annette, and Cecile much to the show. Five rural schools of the surrounding community were also represented.

The following school children received ribbons as their award for their displays:

Stamps—1st, George Albert Richardson; 2nd, Billie Doak; 3rd, Arthur Eddy; 4th, Guy Mireley. Postmarks — 1st, Virginia May Ulrich; 2nd Dale Archer; 3rd Wm. Davis.

Matches—1st Virginia May Ulrich; 2nd Marvin Helman; 3rd Henrietta Politsch.

Miscellaneous — 1st, Allen McClenithen with a display of nails; 2nd Francis Bauer, display of quilts; 3rd, Betty Ann Montavon, display of prints; 4th, Lorraine Grosshans, Century of Progress scrap book.

Among the adult exhibitors receiving ribbons were:

Stamps: Oswald Kutter. Coins: Wayne Archer. Matches: Helen Beemer.

Sports: S. O. Argraves. Miscellaneous: S. O. Argraves. The whole affair was voted a fine success and in all probability the third annual show will be held at this time next year.

Mrs. Leslie D. Miller entertained the members of Circle One of the M. E. Ladies Aid at a tea at her home Friday.

Mrs. Ethel Vickery of West Brooklyn spent Friday and Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carnahan.

Donald Carnahan left Thursday for East Lansing, Mich., where he will enroll as a student at Michigan State College.

Miss Vera Mae Pool of Dixon spent several days last week at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Pool.

Mrs. Len Carnahan returned last week from LaGrange after making an extended visit with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carnahan. The latter returned with her.

CUBS BOAST BETTER TEAM THIS SEASON

Grimm Says the Club Ought To Win Third Place

Chicago, April 4.—(AP)—Impressions of the Chicago Cubs of 1935:

Charley John Grimm, manager and vice president, predicts the Cubs will finish no worse than third, battling it out with the Cardinals and the Giants for the National League championship—if the team succeeds in buying another starting pitcher, Grimm believes the Cubs will win the pennant for sure.

The Cubs, Grimm said, are a better team than a year ago, a younger team and faster, and a more pleasant team to watch, although lacking the power they had last year. He believes Roy Henshaw, diminutive left hander, graduate of the University of Chicago a couple of years ago, will prove invaluable as a relief pitcher, after his last year's training with Los Angeles.

Grimm, starting his 17th year in the majors, is 35 years old—he is in better physical condition today than at any time in his career—the misery he suffered in his back last year has swept away, allowing him to cavort around first base in his sensational acrobatic style—he is taking a big interest in Phil Cavarretta, 18-year-old Chicago high school find, who is trying to push Grimm out of his job as first baseman. Cavarretta, also a left hander, is quickly learning Grimm's tricks of first basing.

Brilliant Outfield
The Cubs are overloaded with brilliant outfield material, with Chuck Klein, Kiki Cuyler, Augie Galan, Frank Demaree and Tuck Stainback out there.

The Cubs are keen on Irish catchers—remember Bill Killifer and Bob O'Farrell—now Gabby Hartnett, a rowdy, gabby catcher, has Kenneth O'Dea as an understudy. He was purchased by the Cubs from Columbus.

Captain Woody English has blown up to a 160 pounder from 142 pounds, after removal of his tonsils—pitcher Larry French, acquired by the Cubs from Pittsburgh, is rated as the best fungo hitter in the National League—they call shortstop Bill Jurgens, "Schnozola," because of his big beak. Consider the case of Dr. Andrew Hemmings Loushaw, trainer of the Cubs—his wife has a pet Boston bull, which bit Mr. Loushaw—in the day time he will have nothing whatever to do with the dog—but at night when Mr. Loushaw stretches his 6 foot 2 frame in bed, he lifts up the covers and in the dog hops, to sleep at Dr. Loushaw's feet all night long.

TRAINING CAMP BRIEFS

(By The Associated Press)
Orlando, Fla.—The days when the Dodgers got themselves named the "Daffiness Boys" because of such base running stunts as putting three runners on one base, seem to be over. Stanley (Frenchy) Bordagaray, speedy outfield recruit, has stolen five bases in six attempts in exhibition games this spring and none of them were occupied when the theft was committed.

Greenwood, Miss.—Regardless of the outcome of pre-season games, Bill Terry, New York Giants' manager, is seeing to it that his reserves get plenty of practice this spring.

He has sent a full team of second stringers into every game, win or lose.

Birmingham, Ala.—Like most managers, Joe McCarthy doesn't want to pick his team as a pennant winner but he has plenty of confidence as the Yankees start their northward trip.

"I think we are going places," Joe admitted, "unless the breaks go against us. Injuries stymied the team last year. If we escape a similar fate I'm confident the team will come through."

Greenwood, Miss.—There was some doubt early this season about the hitting ability of Boze Berger, new second-baseman for the Cleveland Indians. Berger has brushed away most of it, however, by hitting safely in eleven consecutive games.

St. Augustine, Fla.—The Cincinnati Reds entered the "last mile" of their Florida training grind here today, taking on the Detroit Tigers in the first of 11 games to mark their progress home. The series with the American League champions will conclude at Crosley Field, Cincinnati, April 14.

St. Augustine, Fla.—Detroit and Cincinnati open a ten game barnstorming tour here today with Mickey Cochrane planning to give Schoolboy Rowe a chance to pitch his first nine innings of the season. Cochrane has brought the Schoolboy along slowly thus far and has limited him to five inning workouts.

Little Rock, Ark.—If the Chicago Cubs are to entertain any hopes of winning the National League pennant, they must buy, borrow or steal another starting pitcher. Manager-Vice President Charlie Grimm said today as he led his team back to Chicago for a two game series with Washington. Grimm thinks the Cubs can click in championship style with another regular hurler.

Houston, Tex.—Sad Sam Jones, who admits at least 42 birthdays, today will attempt to prove to Manager Jimmy Dykes that he is the man to pitch the season's opener for the Chicago White Sox. Sad Sam has worked only seven innings so far in spring exhibitions, but if he shows well against the Pittsburgh Pirates today, he may get the opening day assignment.

Montgomery, Ala.—Manager Frank Frisch's wrath was still far from appeased today as a much chastened team of St. Louis Cardinals arrived here for a game with Auburn University. Frisch "cracked down on some of the playboys" yesterday, sending Bob Worthington and Charley Wilson to St. Louis, where they will probably draw their releases, and firing Dizzy Dean $100 and Charley Gelbert $50.

Orlando, Fla.—The St. Louis Browns, taking with them a commendable record of 12 victories in 17 Florida exhibition games, were on their way home today. The team left here last night and will arrive in St. Louis tomorrow morning for a day's rest before the six-game spring series with the Cardinals starts.

Houston, Tex.—Ralph Birkofer, the one and only southpaw on the Pirates' hurling staff, does his stuff against the White Sox today. He's billed for all nine frames. Wayne Osborne, rookie, went a full nine yesterday in giving the team a 5-2 win over Galveston.

Louisville, Ky.—Giving up Nashville as a baseball practice grounds, Bucky Harris and his Washington Senators were here today in the hope of playing the local Colonels this afternoon. The Nationals have been prevented by rain from playing four of their last five games.

Traveling Around America

A BRILLIANT SCREAMER

BEAUTIFUL, but a bit raucous, is this tropical bird, the macaw—utterly alluring until it opens its mouth. Colorfully turned out, with graceful wedge-shaped tail, long pointed wings, and aristocratic beak it is one of the handsomest members of the jungle colony, yet with its hoarse, piercing scream the most holdenish of feathered folk.

These gorgeous jungle creatures—perhaps adopting the Indians' idea of tribal or regional costumes—go in for different colors in the various localities in which they live. In Mexico, for instance, where this brilliant creature dwells, the smartest color combination is red and blue. Down in Panama, the sartorially perfect macaw is featured in red and green. Another color combination of the jungle, frequent the shops in seacoast cities and are always popular with travelers visiting the Spanish Americas on the fortnightly cruises between New York and California. Macaws, however, are not as practical for pets as parrots, being loath to learn to talk and extremely fond of screaming.

SARAZEN DRAWS ATTENTIONS OF GOLF GALLERY

Field Seems a Bit Too Speedy For Bobby Jones

Augusta, Ga., April 4.—(AP)—A great little Italian, Gene Sarazen, bronzed from a blazing sun, drew the attention of the betting fraternity today as the mighty guns of American golf were cocked for the second annual $5,000 Augusta national tournament.

They call it Bobby Jones' tournament, for it is the outgrowth of an ideal cherished by the retired world's champion, but as the field moved into action in the 72-hole campaign, it was Sarazen who claimed the spotlight.

In betting circles, money was being loaded on the stocky club-wielder. He has been established a prime favorite. Quoted odds on Gene were 6 to 1, with Jones second choice at 8 to 1.

It would be a great show to see these two old rivals fighting down the stretch for the top prize of this brilliant tournament but the field seems a bit too fast for the great Bobby, who has been missing from the active ranks for five years and has lost the steadiness so essential to competition.

66 Entered.

Altogether 66 of the country's noted campaigners were entered in the classic, including 55 professionals, nine amateurs and two so-called "business man" amateurs—Bobby Jones and Johnny Dawson of Chicago.

There were no less than six present titleholders on hand to fire for the coveted honor, headed by Olin Dutra, the black thatched powerhouse from Los Angeles and the 1934 National open champion. Then there's Paul Runyan, the diminutive P. G. A. king, who last week won the North-South open at Pinehurst with a record breaking total of 276 for 72 holes.

Also in the starting group were W. Lawson Little, Jr., amateur champion of America and Great Britain; Tommy Armour, Canadian open titleholder; Harry Cooper, Eastern open champion; Charlie Yates, national intercollegiate champion and Fred Haas, Jr., Southern amateur champion.

The opening round will be followed by 18 hole tours on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Dutra, coupled with Jimmy Thomson, the long-hitting Long Beach, Calif., professional, won a preliminary event yesterday, defeating several outstanding combinations in a Scotch foursome match. The winners turned in a card of 68, four under par, with Runyan and Smith taking second place with a 70. Jones, playing with Little, finished in par 72 to tie with four other pairs for fifth place.

BASEBALL FILM TO BE SEEN IN DIXON TWO DAYS

Dixon Theater Cooperates with Gryo Club in Fine Feature

The Dixon Gryo club is sponsoring an interesting moving picture feature in Dixon this spring which will be of great interest to baseball fans. Dr. L. R. Evans, who is in charge of the project announced today that two motion pictures would be shown here, in which many of the stars of major baseball will be seen in action in their respective positions. The Gryo club has made arrangements for the showing of the first films at the Dixon Theater on Monday and Tuesday, April 15 and 16. Manager L. G. Rorer is cooperating with the service club in presenting this feature.

The film is entitled "Play Ball" and is supplied by the Fisher Body Co. of Detroit, Mich. The film to be shown two days at the Dixon Theater runs for 20 minutes and will be in addition to the regular program of features.

A feature picture of the same title, which is a talkie, will be shown at the Dixon State hospital amusement hall on the evening of Thursday, May 9. There will be two showings, the first at 7:30 for officers, employees and patients of the institution and at 9 o'clock for the general public. Dr. Warren G. Murray, managing officer of the institution is cooperating with the Gryo club officers in providing this fine entertainment for both employees and patients of the state hospital, and tendering the large amusement hall for the public showing later in the evening.

The picture which requires one hour and 20 minutes for its showing, gives a complete history of baseball and all phases of the various departments of play. Any who are interested will be welcome to attend the second performance at the state hospital on that evening.

"Dark Horses" Romped Home in Alley Match

Syracuse, N. Y., April 4.—(AP)—The uncertainties of bowling were clearly demonstrated in the American Bowling Congress last night. Again the "dark horses" romped home.

Scoring games of 981-996-958, Central Used Parts of Syracuse topped the night's supposedly all-star schedule, rolling 2,935 for sixth place in the main event before another capacity crowd.

Southern Pacifics of San Francisco travelled 3,000 miles to hang up a 2,810 total. The Californians had games of 936-921 and 959. Ora Mayer topped the entry in chalking up 648 with a brilliant 270 mark in the first session.

CULBERTSONS LEAD BUT SIMS SLICE MARGINS

Four Aces Bridge Team Challenges Both Parties

New York, April 4.—(AP)—The Sims-Culbertson bridge match reaches the half-way mark today with Ely and Josephine Culbertson on the long end of the score by 9,460 points.

This was their margin over Mr. and Mrs. Hal P. Sims at the end of 70 rubbers in the 150-rubber match that is supposed to decide the superiority of one or the other of their systems of bidding.

Honors in yesterday's play went to Hal and Dorothy Sims who made a net gain of 1,880 points and at one time had reduced their opponents' lead nearly 4,000. At the end of the 64th rubber, the Culbertsons' advantage was 12,290 points.

Then the Simses swept through four rubbers and brought the difference down to 9,070, only to lose part of the gain on the next rubber.

The rubber score stands 39 to 31 in favor of the Culbertsons, with a total point score of 61,250 to 51,790.

Gov. Cazort Kibitzes.

Among a large group of kibitzers at Crockford's club last night was Lieutenant Governor Lee Cazort of Arkansas. Culbertson invited him to sit at the bridge table with him and playfully remarked:

"I would put you behind Mr. Sims, but you can't learn anything there."

Injected into the match yesterday was a challenge from the "four aces" bridge team of Michael T. Gottlieb, David Burnstine, Howard Schenken and Oswald Jacoby. They offered to play Sims and Culbertson, with their wives or others as partners, in a 300-rubber team-of-four match for another test of bidding systems.

Both Sims and Culbertson

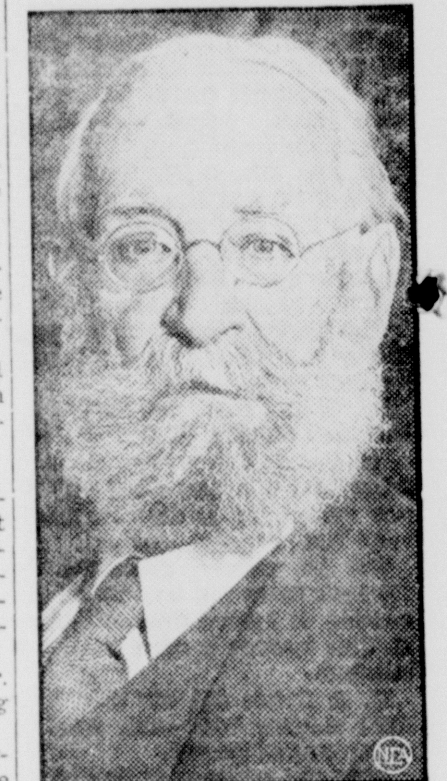

turned down the challenge. Culbertson called it a "psychic bid for publicity."

Sims said he had so many challenges he couldn't begin to consider them all. He said he would be glad to turn over to the "four aces" any of the challenges he had received.

As the match reaches the half-way point, the honor count shows the opposing sides almost even in the number of aces. In 423 hands, the Simses have held 851 aces, 873 kings and 829 queens, while the Culbertsons have had 841 aces, 819 kings and 863 queens.

Honey is one of the most easily digested of foods.

TEMPERANCE HILL

By Mrs. Warren Leake
 Temperance Hill—Mrs. John Henry Leake passed away Thursday evening, March 28th at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Spielman of Rockford after several years illness. Funeral services were held in Rockford Sunday afternoon and also later at the Preston funeral home in Dixon. Burial was at the Temperance Hill cemetery with short services at the grave. Mrs. Leake and her family lived for many years on Temperance Hill, being successful farmers, later moving to Dixon and for the past several years she and her husband have been making their home with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Spielman. Mrs. Leake was 78 years old and leaves to mourn her passing, her aged husband and five daughters, Mrs. Samuel Spielman and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Leake of Rockford, Mrs. E. H. Erk of Columbus, Ohio and Miss Ethel Leake of Oak Park.

WEEKLY SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

TEXT: John, 14:8-24

The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for April 7.

By WM. E. GILROY, D. D.
 Editor of Advance.

With this lesson we begin a new quarter, its 13 lessons dealing with great Christian teachings and purposes, with a concluding temperance lesson on 'Liberty Under the Law.'

The first of these great teachings concerns The Heavenly Father. This is basic in the teaching of Jesus and in the conception of Christianity.

If we examine carefully all that Jesus did and taught, we shall find that primarily what He brought to the world was not a command but a gospel. The first and primary thing in His teaching was not to tell men that they should love God, or that they should love one another, but to tell them that there was a Heavenly Father who loved them.

It is the story of the love that God has for us that constitutes the gospel, and this story and this message were inherent in everything that Jesus did and said.

This does not mean that our love to God is less a privilege and duty, or that man's love to his fellow men is in any way of less importance. On the contrary, our love to God and our love to our fellow men are alike in harmony with and in expression of the love that God has toward us. John makes this very clear when he says, "If God so loved us, we ought also to love one another."

How do we know that there is a Heavenly Father who loves us? This was the question that was troubling Philip when he came to Jesus and said, "Lord, sheweth us the Father, and it sufficeth us."

Jesus did not answer him in vague or philosophical terms. He said that the evidence of God's love and goodness were in the love and goodness that we find in human life, especially in His own life given over so completely to do the Father's will that men might behold in Him the reality of God.

It is important to grasp this. Jesus never made religion a thing apart from life, or the revelation of it something apart from human character and conduct. God is not remote from man, but He is in man, and it is in the goodness in human life, finding its culmination in Jesus—the one supremely good—that we find the evidence of God.

We believe in the sun because it gives us light. So beholding the light that is in Jesus, we believe in the Sun of Righteousness and Love and Truth. There is a glory of God that permeates the world, and we cannot see how Jesus lived for His fellow men, loved them, and died for them, without believing that there is a Father of Love, of whose love this is the manifestation.

So Jesus said to Philip, "He that hath seen Me hath seen the Father." Jesus goes on in this simple effective sermon to Philip and the disciples to emphasize what such faith in God and such vision of Him means.

They are linked with a belief in God's essential provision for His children and with the conception of prayer in which the relation of God is so close and clear, that the disciple asks in the name of Jesus for what he needs for his spiritual life and sustenance. Life becomes above all things a keeping of the commandments of Jesus in love, because in so doing one dwells in the love of God.

But this life of the Christian in faith in a Heavenly Father is not one-sided. The Father gives to His children through the Holy Spirit the sense of communion and guidance. Jesus taught clearly the reality of the Divine Spirit that abides in man and that enriches his life through love.

It is a wonderful saying of Jesus, worthy of much pondering and of taking deeply into our lives. "If a man love Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him."

To realize that is the fullness of faith and the greatest richness of life.

FRANCE SEEKING PACT TO SCARE REICHFUEHRER

Will Seek United Action by France, Britain and Italy at Conference

(Copyright, 1935, by The Associated Press)

Paris, April 4—High sources said today that France, while eager for a general European security pact to include Germany, hopes for a united front with Great Britain and Italy to "frighten" the Reich.

Foreign Minister Pierre Laval, it was disclosed, will seek to embody these two objectives in a program he will present at the conference of the powers at Stresa April 11.

The first point in his program, it was said, will be a clear-cut document signed by France, Great Britain and Italy setting forth their determination to resist any threat to European peace.

His second objective, the high sources said, will be an understanding on essentials of a general European security pact to which Germany will be invited to adhere.

France was assured that when her diplomats travel to Stresa, a strengthened army will be on call to guarantee security at home.

To Maintain Army
A decision to keep under arms for three or four months longer the conscripts whose terms normally would expire this month is expected to be reached at a meeting of the cabinet Saturday. The extension of service would affect 120,000 conscripts and provide France with an army of 300,000 in active training.

At the same time the government considered plans to move additional manpower to the steel line of fortifications on the eastern frontier.

Observers, meanwhile, expressed the hope Poland's willingness to consider a Pan-American pact would enable France, Great Britain and Italy to reach an agreement at the Stresa conference beginning April 11 which would be instrumental in reducing the war-scare tension.

The announcement of Austria's decision to expand the size of her army elicited the view from well-informed circles that France would readily agree to the move to enable Austria to protect her frontier against a re-armed Reich.

GERMANY ALOOF

Berlin, April 4—(AP)—Germany will remain aloof from any complicated general peace pacts, a high foreign official said today as a project for a "Pan-European" security system commanded attention in the other capitals of Europe.

The foreign office spokesman said several conferences would be necessary before Reichsfuehrer Hitler could be persuaded to join "a vague collective system."

Short, crisp, bilateral agreements with precise obligations for limited periods are the Nazi counter-proposal to efforts to round up the former allies into a broad security plan at Stresa.

Another manifestation of the progress of Germany's rearmament program occurred today as thousands of policemen, transferred to the Reichswehr as trainers for the new recruits, appeared in their farewell parade. They are reviewed by General Hermann Wilhelm Goering, aviation minister, who is also chief of the Reich police.

The gap in police ranks caused by the wholesale transfers will be filled from the ranks of the special storm troopers police, the "Eldsaeger."

Praha, Czechoslovakia, April 4—Capt. Anthony Eden, British Lord Privy Seal, received an assurance today from Dr. Eduard Benes, Czech foreign minister, that Czechoslovakia remains in perfect accord with Great Britain concerning the safeguarding of general peace and in attachment to the policy of the League of Nations.

The British diplomat, who already had conferred on the European situation with Reichsfuehrer Hitler in Berlin, with Josef Stalin in Moscow, and with Marshal Pilsudski in Warsaw, talked only briefly with Dr. Benes, the organizer of the Little Entente, on his arrival here today.

ASHTON NEWS

Ashton—Robert Dean who is attending the University of Illinois, visited over the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Dean and sister Dorothy. Early Monday morning Robert, accompanied by his mother and sister, returned to Champaign by way of Dixon where he was joined by three fellow students who were week end visitors at their homes, the boys arrived in time for early classes.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schafer and Miss Leona Roman motored to Polo Thursday afternoon to meet Miss Minnetta Schafer, R. N. of Freeport, and on the way back met at Dixon, Miss Rowena Schafer, a freshman at Illinois Wesleyan, both young ladies spending the week end at the homes of their parents Mr.

and Mrs. Fred Schafer and grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Schafer.

The Misses Eva Marie, Jean and Charlotte Hammerberg of Oak Park spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stevens.

The Royal neighbors will hold their regular business and social meeting at the hall Tuesday evening, April 9th. There will be a bunco party and Committee No. 3 will serve.

Mr. and Mrs. Justus Wagner motored up from Bradenton, Florida, arriving Saturday morning at Riverside, where they were guests over Sunday at the home of their son, Harrison Wagner and family, returning to their home here Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Wagner drove to Florida in November, have been spending the winter with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smoke and family, near whom they have purchased a home, where they expect to continue to spend the winter in the future. Mr. Wagner stated that more people wintered in Florida this year than for many years.

Ashton is again to enjoy home motion picture shows, the former Pastime Theater now known as the Ashton Theater is to be reopened Friday evening under the management of Charles Irwin. Mr. Irwin has been engaged the past few weeks in making the necessary repairs and preparations for the opening. The interior of the theater has been redecorated, the woodwork being finished in silver and black, and the outside attractively painted in the same colors, the decorating having been done by August Oesterheld and Frank Bassler.

An attractive system of lighting has been installed, with two electric wall lights on each side dimly lighting the room during the showing of the pictures and several large drop lights for full lighting during the intermissions, the electrical work being done by Mr. Irwin.

The sound system installed is the new Wide Range, High Fidelity, RCA equipment, such as is now featured in larger cities. With this fine improved theater and modern equipment, it is hoped that good, clean motion pictures will succeed in Ashton.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Charters attended the Mendelssohn Club concert at Rockford Thursday evening, when they heard Pietro Yon, noted organist of New York, accompanying his oratorio "The Triumph of St. Patrick" which was given by 47 singers. This was the second presentation of this composition in the United States and drew a large number of music lovers of this community.

The Womans Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. C. Shippee. Mrs. Harold Stevens and Mrs. Clarence Drummond will be her assistants. The president, Mrs. Richard Sunday will have charge of the devotions and in place of the regular topic study the time will be devoted to a program, which was to have been given in the church for Founders' Day. The Mystery Box will be conducted by Mrs. John Sloggett.

An interested and appreciative audience more than filled the large large Methodist church auditorium Sunday evening for the musical program presented by the pupils of the high school who will appear in the Music and Literary contest at DeKalb this coming Saturday.

The orchestra under the able direction of Herman O'May, played the required number, "Autumn Flowers" by Laurence, and their optional number, "In a Chinese Temple" by Ketelbey, both very beautiful selections, bringing out the marked contrast in types of pieces, which has proved of considerable value in previous contests.

The vocal section, consisting of the girls' glee club, boys glee club and mixed chorus, very capably directed by Miss Muriel Yenerich also sang very pleasingly contrasting selections, the girls required number being "Deep in the Valley" by Besley and the optional number "On the Steppes" by Grechaninov; the boys required number "Sing Me a Chantey" by Wellesley, and the optional selection "Piping Tim of Galloway." The mixed chorus sang "Sleepy Hollow Tune" and "The Sleigh."

Richard Stevens sang very nicely his two tenor solos, "I Love Life," by Mana-Zucca, and "The Blind Ploverman."

With the two directors, Miss Yenerich and Mr. O'May, the three piano accompanists, the Misses Frances Jennings, Jean Root and Ruth Boyd, deserve much credit for their able assistance in the presentation of the delightful program. The best wishes of all Ashton will follow the young people to the contest at DeKalb Saturday.

Miss Lola Quick of Dixon and her nephew Howard Quick who is attending Beloit college, were in Ashton Sunday to attend the program at the Methodist church given by the high school.

The Ashton Woman's Club were well pleased with the receipts from the seat sale for the play "Where's Grandma?" given at the high school auditorium Friday and Saturday evenings and sponsored by the club. The proceeds will make possible some very worthwhile welfare work by the local club.

The characters were all exceptionally well portrayed, reflecting much credit upon the cast and the directors, Mrs. Milton Vaupey and Mrs. Mildred Smith, whose faithful and efficient work made the evening of fun and entertainment possible to the large number who attended.

Glenn Krug came out from Chicago Saturday and visited Sunday and Monday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Krug. Other Sunday dinner guests at the Krug home were Mrs. Krug's mother, Mrs. Mary Miller and son Elmer and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller and daughter Mary Jean of Franklin Grove. Mr. and Mrs. William Schaffer and daughter Fay were afternoon callers.

Ralph Waldron, proprietor of the Blue Bird cab, has sold his business to Russel Landau of Lee Center who will take possession on Saturday. The Waldron family expect to move to Rockford where they formerly lived. Mrs. Waldron who underwent an operation for the removal of a limb at the Rockford hospital several weeks ago is improving nicely but is not yet able to leave the hospital.

The Queen Esther Circle of the Methodist church will hold its regular meeting next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Mildred Smith. Mrs. Harold Stevens and Mrs. Herman O'May will assist in entertaining and all members are urged to attend.

The following officers of the Presbyterian church and Sunday school were elected at the annual meeting held Thursday:

Charles Wagner, Elder.
Lloyd Attig, Trustee.
John D. Charters, Organist.
Richard Hart, Assistant Organist.

Madeline Berry, Asst. Organist.

It was applied to a variety of substances, calomel, for example, to which the special power of "improving health" was credited.

In the middle ages sulphur was used extensively as a treatment for a wide range of ailments. A modern learned work on drugs and their uses says of sulphur:

"Sulphur has fallen largely into disuse, particularly because virtues were attributed to it which it did not possess. Nevertheless, sulphur deserves more attention than it now receives."

This column, however, must not be understood as favoring dosing with sulphur and molasses. Spring brings its own and better tonics. The outdoors and change of diet to include the available fresh fruits and vegetables are better medicine than the "treacle and brimstone" of our grandmothers.

"Week End" Wife is Given Her Divorce

Chicago, April 4—(AP)—Mrs. Lillian Woods, 35, who testified she was the "week-end" wife of Frank Woods, head of the Woods Awning Company of Elgin, Ill., today was granted a divorce by Superior Judge Rudolph Desort on grounds of cruelty.

Shortly after their marriage in 1922, Mrs. Woods told the court, her husband went to Elgin to live, leaving her here. Since then, she declared, he has visited her only on week ends, and often for the sole purpose of beating her up.

Mrs. Woods was awarded custody of their son, Donald, 9, a cash settlement and one half interest in their summer cottage.

Chicago, April 4—(AP)—College and high school basketball coaches emerged from their private huddles and committee meetings into the open today for a two-day debate on suggestions of rule changes in the game.

Every one of the 200 coaches, delegates to the national association of basketball coaches, had definite ideas on the many proposed change ranging from elimination of the center jump to 12 foot baskets. However, the general impression was that only one or two alterations would be recommended to the national rules committee, which meets in New York Sunday and Monday for definite action.

An experimental game was held at the Loyola University gymnasium last night during which teams from Illinois Wesleyan and DePaul, meeting on today's program was that of the referees and officials, who hoped to get a uniform interpretation of the rules. Because of the increase of intersectional games, a general uniformity of rules interpretation is a necessity.

Dr. James A. Naismith, who originated the game 44 years ago, was honored with a gift from the coaches.

DAILY HEALTH
SULPHUR AND MOLASSES
It was not so long ago that the coming of spring meant dosing up with sulphur and molasses.
The old name for this none too palatable mixture was "treacle and brimstone." It was made up of equal parts of flowers of sulphur and of molasses. A teaspoon of this mixture when occasionally needed is a good single dose laxative for a child 10 or 12 years old.
Sulphur and molasses were considered a spring tonic of special virtue. Just what the virtue was never was made clear. The molasses part of this combination is merely the vehicle for the sulphur. Honey can be conveniently substituted for the molasses.
About the sulphur part there is a good deal of mystery. Sulphur is a medicinal substance which dates back to the earliest periods of therapeutics. The ancients know of it and applied it freely. It was employed, even as today, in the treatment of skin eruptions and as a counter-irritant.
Special virtue was attributed to

UNDER TWO LAGS

OF the thousands of islands that dot the South Pacific, the group called New Hebrides has never been claimed by a single nation.

Instead, this colony remains under control of both Great Britain and France. A French explorer claimed the islands for his country in 1768, and Capt. John Cook, the famous navigator, claimed them for Great Britain in 1774. In 1878, they were declared neutral and placed under a "condominium," or joint government.

Since 1908, both British and French stamps have been issued there. In 1911, a joint issue carried the coats of arms of both countries, each still issuing its own postage under its own name, however. After the war, when the French franc fell, it was arranged that both types of stamps could be sold at French currency rates.

Bodies Found Stuffed in Well: House Had Been Ransacked

Fredricksburg, Va., April 4—(AP)—The bodies of an elderly couple, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Coleman, were found stuffed in a well on their farm near here yesterday.

The two were evidently victims of robbers who ransacked their farm home. The body of the woman, with wounds on the head, was first discovered in the well. After its removal, officers found her husband shot in face and head.

The woman was clad in under-clothing. Mr. Coleman was 75 years of age, his wife about 65. A farm hand found the house vacant when he reported for work in the morning. He notified officers and a search revealed the bodies hidden in the well. The home had been ransacked.

Th Coleman's automobile was missing and was reported to have been seen last night at a filling station near here. Capt. H. B. Nicholas, head of the state police, said he was informed that a negro was seen in the car.

Pure water, if absolutely calm, will not freeze as quickly as agitated water. It can be reduced to several degrees below the freezing point without congealing, but a slight shaking will cause it to solidify quickly.

Now Everyone Auto Learn to Fly

Keep it in your garage at home, drive it over streets and highways to an airport—then fly. Those are possibilities opened by the autogyro-auto, which the craft pictured here essentially resembles. Spread out the rotor blades and it can fly; shift gears from propeller to wheels and it handles like a car. The U. S. Bureau of Air Commerce has ordered the first one in America, and Ann Pearce of Elkins Park, Pa., shows how simple it will be to drive to the door of one's destination.

BANKRUPT'S PETITION FOR DISCHARGE

In the Matter

Reinold R. Beller, Bankrupt.

In Bankruptcy 2822.

To the Honorable Charles E. Woodward, Judge of the District Court of the United States, for the Northern District of Illinois:

Reinold R. Beller, of Dixon in the County of Lee and State of Illinois, in said district, respectfully represents that on the 3rd day of January last past, he was duly adjudged bankrupt under the acts of Congress relating to bankruptcy; that he has duly surrendered all his property and rights of property, and has fully complied all the requirements of said acts and of the orders of the court touching his bankruptcy.

Wherefore he prays that he may be decreed by the court to have a full discharge from all debts provable against his estate under said bankruptcy acts, except such debts as are excepted by law from such discharge.

Dated this 26th day of March A. D. 1935.

REINOLD R. BELLER, Bankrupt.

Order of Notice Thereon

Northern District Illinois, Western Division, ss.:

On this 29th day of March A. D. 1935, on reading the foregoing petition, it is Ordered by the Court, that a hearing be had upon the same on the 21st day of October A. D. 1935, before said court, at Freeport in said District, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon; and that notice thereof be published in Dixon Telegraph, a newspaper printed in said District, and that all known creditors and other persons in interest may appear at the same time and place and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And It Is Further Ordered by the Court, that the Clerk shall send by mail to all known creditors copies of said petition and this order, addressed to them at their places of residence as stated.

WITNESS the Honorable Charles E. Woodward, Judge of said Court, and the seal thereof, at Freeport in said District, on the 29th day of March A. D. 1935.

Henry W. Freeman, Clerk

(Seal of the Court.)

of ways and fence lines should be done against the wind and done on a community wide basis, to do any real good, not just a scattering here and there. The prospects are that at least 90 per cent of the bugs have wintered through the mild winter, and they will be ready to move into the fields as soon as it warms up. The fact is that on days such as we have had the past few weeks they have been seen moving.

The DARK BLOND

BEGIN HERE TODAY

MILICENT GRAVES, secretary to GEORGE DRIMGOLD, finds her employer in his office dead. Millicent has a notebook in which Drimgold had begun to dictate a confession.

In panic she rushes away, registers at a hotel under an assumed name.

JARVIS HAPP, a stranger, offers to help her. He sends her to a beauty parlor where she is transformed into a brunette, then takes her home and introduces her as his secretary. She meets Happ's son, NORMAN, his stepson, ROBERT CAISE, and MRS. HAPP.

Millicent falls asleep and wakes to find a note under her door reading: "The woman in black ermine is here." Millicent dresses, sees the woman in black drive away and follows in Robert Caise's car but runs out of gas. She goes to the chauffeur's quarters and finds him dead.

Next morning Millicent meets VERA DUCHENE, Mrs. Happ's maid. Millicent goes to Vera's room and sees her with something that looks like a black ermine coat.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XIX VERA DUCHENE whirled, regarding Millicent with eyes that were suddenly cold, hard and viciously vengeful.

"What are you doing, snooping around here?" she asked. Millicent said, "I wasn't snooping. I came to warn you of some thing."

"Well, what was it?" "This isn't going to be an ordinary investigation," Millicent said. "There are elements involved which are going to cause trouble. If you didn't get in until a late hour this morning, as you started to say, you'd better tell the police so now, because otherwise they'll check up on you."

"And what makes you think I didn't get in until this morning?" "Because you started to say so down there at the table."

"And you came all the way up here just to tell me that?" "Yes."

"Baloney!" "All right. Why did I come up here?" Millicent demanded angrily. "You came up here to snoop because Jarvis Happ has been suspicious of me ever since I started to work for his wife. Go back and tell him that his spying didn't work."

"Don't be too certain it didn't work," Millicent said. And with that, she turned around and banged the door angrily behind her.

She ran down the corridor and sought her own room, trying to analyze her conflicting emotions. Had she really gone to the room to spy on Vera Duchene?

Suddenly she realized that she had. She was suspicious of Vera Duchene, had been from the moment she had seen her.

Vera Duchene had been out the night before. She had returned early in the morning. She, then, must have been the one who had driven the sedan Millicent had encountered when leaving Felding's room. Had she also been the one who led Harry Felding on the chase which ended in his death?

Was Vera Duchene the woman in the black ermine coat?

MILICENT could not, of course, be certain, but she did know that the form and figure of Vera Duchene were similar to the form and figure of the woman who had worn the black ermine, and the single swift glimpse Millicent had had of the woman in the tea room had shown her a cold, gray eye—scheming, hard, wary and watchful.

Vera Duchene's eye could well have taken on such an expression. Millicent, herself, had seen those eyes change. They had been filled with alluring invitation when they rested upon the officer. Then, later, when Millicent had entered her room and had glimpsed what apparently was a black ermine coat, the eyes had become cold, hard, glittering and vengeful.

Millicent determined that she would keep Vera Duchene in mind, and would pay closer attention to her comings and goings.

There was a discreet knock at the door.

"Who is it?" Millicent asked. "Winton, the butler," said a mournful voice.

She opened the door. The butler stood in wooden faced dignity upon the threshold.

"The master would like to have you report to him in his study," he said. "And did you hear about the murder?"

She smiled up into his professionally lugubrious countenance and said, "I understand that the chauffeur was killed by bandits."

"He might have been killed by bandits," the butler said, "and then again he might not. You see, he must have borrowed Master Robert's car, run out of gasoline and walked home, but the police can't find the keys to the car."

"Master Robert is careless about his keys at times. He left all of his keys in the car—not only the keys to the car, but the keys he carries to the house and the garage."

"Well?" asked Millicent. "If Harry Felding had left the car and locked it, where the police found it, he'd naturally have left the keys in his pocket."

"Perhaps he put them some place when he got to his room," Millicent said.

"I beg your pardon, but that's impossible," the butler said with mournful cadence. "He was killed just as he entered the room. Some one either had been lying in wait for him or had been robbing the place and was surprised."

"Well," Millicent said, "you'll have to excuse me. It's nothing I can speculate about. If Mr. Happ wants me, I must go at once."

RELUCTANTLY the butler turned away. After he had gone a few steps, he paused and said, "Did the police question you?"

"They wanted to know where I was last night," she said.

Moved by some sudden inspiration, Millicent went on rapidly. "Were there visitors in the house last night, Winton?"

He hesitated a moment, then stepped nearer, lowered his voice, and almost whispered, "Mrs. Happ had a woman visitor last night."

"Did you see how she was dressed?" "I'm sure I couldn't tell you that. She wore a black fur coat. That was all I saw."

"An ermine coat?" "I don't know just what you'd call it. I happened to be passing Mrs. Happ's suite and I heard voices. I thought she'd called to me, so I knocked on the door and opened it a crack. A woman was standing there, wearing a black coat. The collar was turned up about her ears. I didn't see any more. Mrs. Happ called to me in a sharp voice to close the door and get away from there."

"Does Mrs. Happ have a black fur coat?"

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Haas and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Haas entertained a party of twelve guests Saturday evening at the former's home including Mr. and Mrs. Glydon

Just to Help You Remember—

Here's the great comic pair, Charlie Chaplin and Jackie Coogan, in their world-famous picture, "The Kid." Jackie was only 4 years old then, and one of the likeliest tots in filmdom. Now he's almost 29, a husky six-footer, able to turn the tables on the man who used to fondle him.

Look, Charlie! It's 'The Kid'!

Just look who's here! Jackie Coogan, famous baby hero of "The Kid," has paid a surprise visit to Charlie Chaplin, his mentor. He gave the great comedian even more of a surprise when Jackie picked him up as easily as Charlie used to carry the boy 15 years ago.

A banister is not the handrail which fences off the stairs, but one of the vertical bars which run from the balustrade to the steps.

Approximately 90 women hold licenses as amateur radio operators in this country.

Germs have been found 13,000 feet above the earth by English scientists.

WASH OUT 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

Win Back Pep . . . Vigor . . . Vim

Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 MILES of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy.

If you have trouble with too frequent bladder passages with scanty amount causing burning and discomfort, the 15 MILES of kidney tubes need washing out. This dangerous signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains and dizziness. If kidneys don't empty 3 pints a day and get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter, your body will take up these poisons causing serious trouble. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS . . . an old prescription . . . which has been used successfully by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help you wash out the 15 MILES of kidney tubes. Get DOAN'S PILLS at your druggist. © 1934, Foster-Milburn Co.
